PAINMASTER

I. INTRODUCTION

The evil demon king Kull has created a machine to transplant the souls of demons into the bodies of machines. With his army of ROBODEMONS he has cast a dark shadow over the region of Earth. You are a great warrior armed with your magical Boomerang. With it you must penetrate the seven gates of Hades that lead you to a confrontation with this demon king. Along the way you will free the condemned soul captives of Kull, wipe out his demons in their own living quarters, and destroy his Robodemon machine.

III. MAIN CHARACTERS

A MOST GREAT WARRIOR

A Most Great Warrior: This nameless hero has taken on the task of destroying the demon Kull and freeing the condemned souls. He is equipped with booster rockets on his back and can leap great distances. Some times he must rely on his booster rockets, sometimes he must rely on his quick reactions and jumping ability. Always he can throw his magical boomerang.

Condemned Souls: You will find these helpless souls of your ancestors trapped in one of the levels of Hades. Free them by touching them and their souls will be released from Kull's kingdom.

IV. SPECIAL OBJECTS

Keys: Keys are picked up by touching them. Doors requiring keys have keyholes. Doors without keyholes do not require a key.

Magical Doors: Some doors will not allow passage by the hero unless he has proven himself worthy. He must complete the quest he was given for that level in order to pass. For instance, in the demon factory he must completely destroy the demon machine and the demons who control it in order to pass through the door to the next level.

V. DEMONS

DEMON KULL

ROBODEMON

DEMON KULL: The king of the nether world of Hades. You must descend to the bottom of Hades to find and defeat this dreaded giant.

ROBODEMONS: These robotic monsters contain the souls of demons. You will have to kill them twice, once as a machine, once as a demon.

LESSER DEMONS: You will find a variety of these demon types ranging from Skeleton Warriors to Firebirds. Each level has a different type of enemy in the following order: Bone, Flesh, Fire, Condemned Souls, Demon's Quarters, Robodemon Factory, Kull's Palace.

VI. LEVELS

SKELETON WARRIOR

Kull's demon empire is divided into seven levels. In each of these seven realms live hideous monsters and demons who will try to stop the warrior from reaching the king demon Kull's palace. Your task in each level varies. Before each level the warrior must use his booster rockets to fly through a long and dangerous tunnel filled with demons and evil spirits. At the end of the tunnel you will then have to complete the task necessary to exit that level and get to the next.

The first level is the level of Bone. You must find the key to the stone doors at the end of this level and escape without losing your life.

The second level is the level of Flesh. This pulsating level is especially tricky because there are no natural walkways. You must enter the living walls themselves to get around. Here too you must find the key and exit through the gates of Hades. Beware of the lake of acid bile that covers the floor of this world. If you fall in you will be melted and will lose your life.

The third level is the level of Fire. Again, your goal here is to pass this third level of the elements. You will need to find the key and must avoid stepping into flaming pools. Fire demons will chase you at every turn. You must trust moving platform bridges as these are sometimes the only way to get to your goal.

FIREBIRD

The fourth level is the level of Condemned Souls. At this level you must free the spirits of your ancestors who are the captives of the demons who inhabit this realm. You will not be able to pass from this realm until you have helped all who are captive here.

The fifth level is the level of the Demon. In this level the Demons live in their plush and weird quarters relaxing in every conceivable way. You will have to fight your way through to find the key which is guarded by a magical statue of the demon Kull. The key is hidden in a treasure chest at his feet.

DEATH

The sixth level is the level of the Robodemon Factory. It is here that King Demon's machine to create the demons is stored. You must destroy this machine and the demon technicians that run it. You will not be able to leave this realm until you have done so.

The seventh level is the palace of the king demon Kull. You must find and defeat this huge demon to complete your quest and win the game.
